STORAGE LICENCE FOR PETROLEUM PRODUCTS
ADHIR RANJAN CHOWDHURY

Will the Minister of PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the storage licence issued for storing for Kerosene `B` class petroleum by the oil companies/firms can be allowed to convert for storing the high speed diesel i.e. `B` class petroleum (the same category of petroleum) after changing the required licence fees;

(b) if so, whether the said permission had ever been granted to any oil companies/firm in the past;

(c) if so, whether the storage licence for storing A and B class petroleum can be transferred in other names or other parties/firms/companies; and

(d) if so, the procedure and the details of competent authority for the above?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM & NATURAL GAS (SHRIMATI SUMITRA MAHAJAN)

(a) & (b) : Yes, Sir.

(c) : Yes, Sir. There is provision under Petroleum Rules, 2002 for transfer of licence from one name to another.

(d) : Such transfer can be done by the licensing authority and the applicant is required to submit under mentioned documents :-

(i) A consent letter signed by the licensee indicating the full name and address of the person to whom he wishes to transfer the licence and give complete possession of the licensed premises.

(ii) Original licence sought to be transferred.

(iii) An application in form IX filled in and signed by the person to whom the licence is to be transferred.

(iv) A transfer fee of Rs.500/- paid by Bank draft in the name of licensing authority.
